About

Founded 12 years ago, this groundbreaking event celebrates the remarkable achievements of individuals and businesses in the ICT field. Unveiling the best of the best, it recognizes rising stars, exceptional students, innovative professionals, visionary leaders, and emerging talents whose contributions have elevated Albania's standing in the global ICT landscape.

Supported by ALBICT, a non-profit ICT-focused association, this event fosters growth, promotes education & training programs, and drives social entrepreneurship initiatives, positioning Albania as a thriving hub in the ever-evolving world of information and communication technology.

Join us on this extraordinary journey, where excellence meets recognition, and the future of Albanian ICT shines bright.

More than 35 Success stories

ICT award winners have not only secured recognition locally but have also showcased their prowess on the international stage. Testifying to their exceptional abilities, some have triumphed in competitions like the Balkan Olympics, while others have found employment in globally acclaimed companies such as Google. Additionally, many have spearheaded the expansion of their companies beyond the region, solidifying the ICT Awards as a catalyst for not just personal success but also for the growth and global reach of innovative businesses originating from Albania, Kosovo, North Macedonia or Montenegro.

Explore Sponsorship Opportunities

Becoming a partner, sponsor, or supporter of Albanian ICT Awards offers a unique avenue for engagement with the local technology community. Sponsors benefit from exposure, reaching diverse audiences, connecting with industry professionals, and contributing to the elevation of Albania's profile in technology, innovation, and entrepreneurship. The event serves as a premier platform for brands to align with esteemed industry figures, becoming part of a standard-setting initiative that benchmarks technology and innovation in the Albanian and regional context.
